Colonel Jo Lane Stern Leads With Miss Ellen Belne
Scott.

DANCE FOR MISS ALICE MUNSON

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Palmer Give Entertainment. To-Night—Dugald Stewart Walker to Speak at Art Club This Afternoon.

Palms and bay trees, interspersed with foliage plants and ferns decorated the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel last evening for the fourth dance of the season given by the Richmond German Club. Colonel Jo Lane Stern led the german, dancing with Miss Ellen Belne Scott, the debutante daughter of Judge and Mrs. H. Carter Scott. Miss Scott wore a quaint French dress of pink chiffon and rose-colored tulle trimmed with silver lace and the bolero was trimmed in tulle and silver.

A seated supper was served at 10:30 o'clock in the main dining-room of the hotel. The tables were laid with covers for six and eight, and decorated in white and gold baskets filled with spring flowers. A number of guests from a distance were present last evening and these included Dr. and Mrs.
Lewis Allen, of Clarke County; Mrs.
Fairfax Harrison, of "Belvoir," Fauquier County; L. H. Skinner, of Washington; Miss Eleanor McKay, of Omaha, Nebr.; George Browning, of Orange, and others.

At the Woman's Club.
Professor Edmund Neil, of the University of West Virginia, gave a fascinating reading of "The Ideal Husband" before a capacity audience at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon.
Professor Neil is a man of rare dramatic ability, himself a scholar of wide culture, his portrayal of this delicious bit of fiction in four acts was magnificently done. He brought out very subtly the delicious humor of the play with his genuine philosophy of life and the brilliant, scintillating phrasing of the culture, and his portrayal of this delicious picture of human nature, so English in its setting and atmosphere, and Professor Neil made very real the characters of this well-known drama.
Mrs. J. C. Allen, of Norfolk, was chairman of the afternoon.

PETITION OF MRS. MOHR FOR DIVORCE INTRODUCED

Asks for Separate Maintenance and Charges Doctor With Wrongdoing.
Precipitates Sharp Legal Battle.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., January 24.—Introduction of the divorce petition of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr against her husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr, into the trial of Mrs. Mohr and two negroes, Cecil Brown and Henry Spellman, on charges of murdering the doctor, precipitated a legal battle to-day.
Before it was over testimony was produced to show that there was nothing in the records to indicate that the divorce suit was down for a hearing on September 1, 1915, although George W.
Heals, the doctor's chauffeur, who has turned State's evidence, had previously testified that Mrs. Mohr had urged him and her alleged accomplices to kill the doctor on the night of August 31, as "it was the last chance" before her suit came up for a hearing the first of the next month.

This evidence was given by Edward C. Root, assistant clerk of the Superior Court, who had handled the papers.
Mrs. Mohr's petition was read in as evidence by the attorney-general earlier in the day. In its amended form she asked for separate maintenance and charged the doctor with wrongdoing in his relations with other women and with the use of drugs.

Effort was made also by the attorney-general to introduce the doctor's cross-petition. Both were offered, the prosecution stated, "to show what the doctor's attitude of Mrs. Mohr was towards her husband after he had sworn certain allegations against her in his cross-petition for divorce." The court finally excluded both documents as exhibits, leaving on record the testimony relative to them and the reading of the original petition by the attorney-general.

Before the ruling was made Mrs.
Mohr's counsel suggested that the State renounce as a motive for the murder any feeling that may have resulted from allegations made in the divorce suits.

"We affirm it instead of renouncing it," replied the attorney-general.

When the court adjourned to-night the State announced that it had five more witnesses. While the prosecution may be able to rest its case to-morrow, one of the State's attorneys said it was more likely to go over until Wednesday, everything depending on the cross-examination.

"IT'S COCKRAN!" CRY SAVES PICKPOCKETS

Indignant Victim Relents When Some One Says "Cockran" Is Noted Lawyer.

NEW YORK, January 24.—A pickpocket, who was dressed in the height of fashion, and a young woman confederate made a victim of E. C. Duncan, of Raleigh, N. C., a friend of Secretary of the Navy Daniels. Duncan has been stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria for several days. He lost his pocketbook containing $50, a Pullman ticket to Chicago, half a dozen railroad passes and a check for $500.

Mr. Duncan and a friend had attended the Longacre Theater in West Forty-eighth Street last Saturday night. After the performance they were passing out through the lobby when their attention was attracted by a man who jostled them. The man was elderly, solidly built, wore a frock coat and top hat and walked with stately bearing.

Mr. Duncan suddenly felt a lightness in his right-hand breast pocket and missed his pocketbook. He accusingly indignant. There was some excitement, and then the young woman pushed in and grabbed the man with the silk hat by the arm. She was about to lead him away when Duncan demanded his arrest.

"Don't arrest him," some one called out, "that's Bourk Cockran."

The stranger and the woman walked quickly away and yesterday Mr. Duncan reported his loss to the police.

DIX, HIS FORTUNE GONE. PLANS TO GO TO HAWAII

President Wilson and Senator O'Garman Trying to Provide Place for Former Governor of New York.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] EL PASO, TEX., January 24.—John A. Dix, ex-governor of New York, is planning to make his future home in Hawaii. The necessity of earning a livelihood is given as the cause of the change of residence.

Senator James A. O'Garman, representing the New York State Democratic organization, with the assistance of President Wilson, has undertaken to find a position for Dix. The place for which tentative arrangements have been made will pay about $25,000.

Charles R. Folger, chairman of the Public Utilities Commission of Hawaii, made known these facts here to-day while en route from Washington to San Francisco, whence he will return to Honolulu.

He said he had been given to understand that the entire fortune inherited by Mrs. Dix from her father had been lost largely through her husband's political ambitions.

Mr. Folger exhibited a telegram from Dix telling that he would meet him in Los Angeles to discuss the position that is to be offered.

Mr. Folger said that President Wilson and Senator O'Garman both informed him that it was absolutely necessary to provide a place for Dix.
They asked that he be provided with a place paying a salary of at least $5,000 to $10,000.

"I informed them no such positions were available, but I promised to place him with certain sugar interests at a smaller salary."

He was given to understand that Dix has nothing left of the fortune he once possessed, and desired to get away from old associations as possible while endeavoring to rehabilitate himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Dix have been visiting in California for some weeks.

FORMER POLICE CHIEF OF HOPEWELL ARRESTED

W. D. Henderson Charged With Interfering With Officer in Discharge of His Duty.

HOPEWELL, Va., January 24.—W. D.
Henderson, former chief of police of Hopewell, was placed under arrest tonight by a detail of militia on a charge of interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty. With the former chief were George Hinchins and three women, Eliza McRee, wife of Weis and Sarah Johnson. They were also placed under arrest on charges of disorderly conduct. All were taken to police headquarters and released on bail. Henderson in the sum of $150, Hutchins, of $50, and the three women, $25 each.

The arrest of Henderson and his companions followed the robbery of a check earlier in the day by three persons, two women and a man, and the ex-policeman's interference in their behalf. The Greek, a Du Pont employee, started to walk to the bank at City Point this afternoon about 3 o'clock. When on the outskirts of Hopewell he was held up by the trio of negroes and robbed of $12 in money and his Du Pont pay check. He reported the hold-up at police headquarters and offered to guide an officer to the place where he believed the negroes would be found. Officer Spencer was detailed to the case and the negroes were found in the place pointed out.
As Spencer was making the arrests the Greek, one of the women entered and protested and was promptly handcuffed. At this juncture Henderson came upon the scene and it is alleged, told Spencer not to arrest the negroes. The officer, a gun in each hand, covered Henderson and his prisoners and finally managed to get the negroes away and to jail.

A warrant was sworn out for Henderson and a detail of militia arrested him and his companions in their tent at 11 o'clock to-night.

against Arthur Seaborn, colored, indicted for the murder of Maggie Pul-lins, colored, in December, is set for trial in the Hustings Court to-morrow.
The case involves some interesting points, and the "unwritten law" may be one of them. The woman was cut and stabbed to death at her home.

The Reported Biwiddle Murder.

There seems a mystery about the reported alleged murder of a white man by a negro in Biwiddle County yesterday. Nothing has been heard about it since a telephone message was received at the police station from Addison, a few miles west of the city, asking for the arrest of a negro who was making his way towards Petersburg.
Who had shot and killed a white man and wounded another. No names were given by the sender of the message, nor was the place of the alleged murder stated.

condition. Charity to the amount of several hundred dollars was dispersed last year in food, clothing, fuel, etc.

At the Movies To-Day

LITTLE—Marguerite Clark, in "Mice and Men."
1818—Robert Warwick, in "The Man of the Hour."
COLONIAL—Alice Brady, in "The Rock."
HAGG—Jane Grey and Tully Marshall, in "Let Katy Do It," and Sam Bernard, in "The Great Pearl Tangle."
VICTOR—Simon the Jester, with Edwin Arden.
REX—The Silent Trail, with Forest Taylor.
ODEON—"Damaged Goods," with Richard Bennett.

"Damaged Goods" at the Odeon.

From the viewpoint of business—which tells the tale—no opening could have been more successful than that of the Odeon yesterday, all day and until the closing hour at night, crowd-locked into the theater in Sixth Street which Mr. Wells has added to his chain of picture-houses. From every other point of view, it depends on whether one considers Eugene Brien's "Damaged Goods" inspired and purified drama, presented by an altruistic band of "co-workers" for the benefit of humanity, or knows it to be merely a particularly unpleasant exposition of the result of human weakness, considered in the theater-going public by the cleverest showmanship that ever carried a production to success by ringing the changes on one word, never spoken in what is commonly known as a "stock company."

Everybody knows the story, or rather the tract, the clinical treatise on elementals, that Brien wrote, so it is needless to describe it, even if it could be "striking" plot, the photograph takes the spectator through actual chain scenes, in which nauseating spectacles are shown the seeker after amusement.
Outside the hospitals and the exhibition of horrors that used to be not infrequent in other days, the bathhouse slights thrown on the screen rarely are displayed. Nor did the writer of the subtitles shrink from culling a spade a shovel.
The plot is a good one, a good actor, and all the others in the cast are competent, though all the young women, good and bad, look almost exactly alike. Beginning with salacious and ending with horror, "Damaged Goods" will almost certainly pack 'em in at the Odeon all the week.

Douglas Gordon.

Alice Brady at Colonial.

Alice Brady, in "The Rock," was the offering at the Colonial Theater yesterday. The advertised picture of the woman upon the cross was seen only in "flash," the symbol of the emotion which the woman upon the cross was undergoing. The Pathe News was an interesting feature.

Laughs at Bijou.

Jane Grey and Tully Marshall, in "Let Katy Do It," was the principal photoplay yesterday at the Bijou Theater. The plot carries the story to Mexico, where many things happen.
The comedy portion of the program is that funny man, Sam Bernard, in "The Great Pearl Tangle," which furnished many laughs.

Marguerite Clark at Little.

Marguerite Clark in a wholesome photoplay, "Mice and Men," is the little Theater's attraction for the first half of the week. As one walks out from it they feel cast under its spell of misguiding love, the rumble, the flame, and its strength lies in its wholesome charm. Somewhat unusual in plays, but possibly not unusual in life, it is the woman who makes the difference, and the man who has the saving spark of confidence and common sense to see beyond the end of his nose. "Mice and Men" furnishes Marguerite Clark with one of the best vehicles of her screen career, and the supporting cast has been skillfully chosen.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair, use and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.
